THE GOSPEL OF ST. JOHN

IN THE

LANGUAGE OF THE OJIBWA INDIANS.

Bible--N.T.--John--Ojibwa

BOSTON:
PRINTED FOR THE AMERICAN BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS, BY CROCKER & BREWSTER.

1838.

NOTE.

THE following translation of John's Gospel into the Ojibwa language, was made by John and Peter Jones, who are native religious teachers employed by the Methodist Episcopal Missionary Society in Canada, and published by the British and Foreign Bible Society. The edition here presented is copied from that of the British and Foreign Bible Society, with scarcely any alterations, except the changing of a few words to render them more intelligible, and more conformed to correct usage, as the language is spoken in this part of the country. The orthography, however, is entirely different; this edition being written in the orthography adopted by the missionaries of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in writing the Ojibwa language.

This translation, it is believed, is as correct in general as any which can be made in the present state of Ojibwa literature.
